

WECAN

The Women Executive Channel Advisory Network (WECAN) is an organization comprised of senior leaders committed to uplifting women to tech leadership. We offer advisory, mentorship, and educational programs intended to elevate more women into leadership roles in the tech industry while being a resource for organizations to bolster diversity and eliminate bias among their ranks.

OUR VISION

We envision a technology partner ecosystem where women comprise an equal share of leadership roles.

OUR MISSION

As catalysts for growth, we leverage our experiences and sphere of influence to mentor, empower, and elevate women leaders in the technology partner ecosystem, so they can access equitable career and business opportunities and impact channel success.

CORE VALUES

WECAN is built on a proven set of core values that guide us every day as we strive to impact more leadership opportunities for women in technology.

- Aspire to Empower
- Lead with Integrity
- Impact Equitable Outcomes
- Culture of Inclusion
- Growth Mindset
- Catalyst for Change
